

tree ref no	tree name	region	notes	update/work required	date added/last updated	yDNA testers recruited; lines which belong to DNA GROUPS
74	Gabriel Appleby of New Brunswick, Canada	Canada			coming soon!	Ancestry kit GROUP ONE
15	Nathaniel Appleby of Langenhoe	East Anglia	Generations of this family lived around Langenhoe, Abberton and Fingringhoe but eventually some moved to the East End of London. One branch emigrated to New Zealand	new information to be added to desc. of Nathaniel and Rosina May	Jul-2010	kit 210877 GROUP THREE
32	James Appelbi of Boxted, Essex	East Anglia	This very large family remained in Boxted for at least eight generations before dispersing to nearby villages, to Colchester or London. One branch is known to have emigrated to Arizona	need to add details of family of Isaac, chr 1771 (chart 4)	Jul-2010
33	Miles Appleby of Dedham	East Anglia	Although Miles was born in Dedham, most of his children were born in villages SW of Chelmsford. In the mid 1800s most of the family migrated across the Thames to Kent		Aug-2010
34	James Appleby of Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	James Appleby married Sarah Norman in Fingringhoe in 1805	added photos and updates jun 2014	May-2010	kit 179931 UNGROUPED kit 210876 GROUP THREE
36	William Appleby b1760 Gt Braxted, Essex	East Anglia	Several generations of this line were farmers and innkeepers in villages around Braxton. We believe that one descendant went to Canada in the 1920s		Jul-2010
37	Edward Appleby b 1774 Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	Edward, born about 1774, married Amelia Hales		Jul-2010
39	Joseph appleby, b 1799 Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	Joseph Appleby was a farmer born in 1799 - he married Sarah Gentry		updated aug 2010
40	George Appleby b1780 Ardleigh, Essex	East Anglia	George married Elizabeth Nice (or Nurse) - we know that one major branch of this family emigrated to Australia		Jan-2011	kit 199993 GROUP THREE kit 302219 (in progress)
42	William Appleby, b1806, Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	William was born in 1806 and was married to Hannah		Jul-2010
112	Norwegian Applebys	Europe and USA	Christen Bringle APPLEBY's family arrived in Iowa in the USA from Norway in 1870 and we have tracked them through the US censuses. But finding them in Norwegian records was quite difficult! We now know that they adopted the surname APPLEBY on their arrival, but it was based on Christen's Norwegian 'farm name' as he came from a place called APALVIK in Rogaland, south east Norway.		Aug-2014	kit 302220 UNGROUPED
70	Appelbes of Cork, Ireland	Ireland	Alexander Appelbe was born in around 1725 and was a linen weaver in Cork. Generations remained around Cork where they were County Surveyors, but following separation in the 1920s, one branch moved to England	updated aug 2014	Nov-2011
14	William Appleby of Pennsylvania	Ireland / overseas	We know that William and his brothers sailed from Northern Ireland to America in the 1770s, but it is possible that they did not originate in Ireland as DNA shows a strong link to lines from Northumberland & Durham	find out more about Wm and Elizabeth son James?	Jan-2010	kit 162251 GROUP ONE kit 68079 GROUP ONE
56	Applebys of Roscommon and Middlesbrough	Ireland/Northern	The earliest Applebys we have identified in this line came from Roscommon, but we have now discovered that they are closely connected to the line of Kirkcaldy Applebys. A number of the Roscommon Applebys spent time in Scotland and one particular family group moved to Middlesbrough in North Yorkshire - with descendants emigrating to the USA.		Apr-2015	kit 374806 - GROUP ONE - Northern counties
21	Hezekiah Appleby of Pennsylvania	Ireland/Overseas	Hezekiah was the son of one of William of Pennsylvania's sons	more work to do on this line - add murals	coming soon!
1	Joseph Appleby, tin plate worker	London	Joseph was a tin plate worker and tin toy maker in Bethnal Green, supposedly born in Bethnal Green in abt 1820. DNA seems to indicate a link with the Willenhall Applebys of Staffordshire		Dec-2009	kit 143479 GROUP FIVE
2	Samuel Appleby, wheelwright	London	Samuel and his sons were wheelwrights in St Pancras, but he originally came from Dogsthorpe in Northants		Dec-2009
5	Matthew Applebee, sawyer	London	Matthew's family were sawyers from Berkshire who moved to London's East End and later migrated up to Yorkshire	check updated with info about Mark in Canada	Dec-2009
6	Richard Appleby, carpenter	London	a family of carpenters from St Pancras		Jan-2010
7	Henry Appleby, engraver	London	Henry and his sons were engravers based in and around Islington. It is possible that this line is linked to other London families with similar trades.		Jan-2010
8	John James Appleby, cutler	London	This line of cutlers were based in Clerkenwell and Islington - I have not been able to discover a birth for John James.	there is def. a link with Samuel Appleby pipemaker	Jan-2010
51	William Appleby, Pianoforte maker	London	William Appleby was born in Stepney, possibly the son of Thomas Appleby and Mary (Bushell). William only seems to have had one son - Walter - who was a tennis bat maker		Apr-2011
61	George Appleby musician of St Pancras	London	this was an unusual line to research, as we started with a young man who jumped ship in Canada. Eventually we traced his father to London where he was a musician - but we believe that originally the line came from Yeovil in Somerset		Sep-2011

83	Samuel Applebee pipemaker	London	We know that there are several marriages between this line and that of John James Appleby, cutler (whose family lived in the same area of London) - but have not yet found a connection in the written records. Although all generations researched lived in London, we now know that Samuel's father lived in Tetbury in Staffordshire.		Jan-2013	kit 236822 UNGROUPED (Mids)
84	Armourers and brasiers	London	Two brothers John and Charles were sent to London (from Reading in Berkshire) to be apprenticed as Armourers and Brasiers. They seem to have made a success of their lives, but it looks as if both branches of this line 'daugtered out' by the 1860s		Nov-2012
19	John Appleby, trimming maker	London / overseas	This seemed to be an East End family, but we discovered that originally John Appleby's family were from Coventry. One branch emigrated to Wisconsin in abt 1850		Feb-2010	kit 147565 GROUP FOUR kit 222309 GROUP FOUR
49	William Barker Appleby, coachmaker	Midlands	The family had its origins in Lincolnshire, but the family migrated to London in the mid 19thC, with two generations of one branch emigrating to New Zealand soon after	see file for corrections and look for link with Lincs and rotherham line	Nov-2010	kit 336519 - UNGROUPED
53	Willenhall Applebys, locksmiths	Midlands	On the website, we show this huge family as five separate lines, but we are pretty sure that they do all link up somehow. All seem to be connected to the lock and key industry of Willenhall.	added Willenhall Line E corrected Willenhall C	Jan-2013	kit 222308 GROUP FIVE; kit 265804 GROUP FIVE
71	John and Tamar Appleby of Staffordshire and USA	Midlands	All early members of this family were nailers from Shropshire, Staffordshire and Worcestershire. One branch emigrated to Nebraska in the 1850s	new info to be added (see notes)	Jan-2012
76	Applebys of East Retford, Notts	Midlands	This line is descended from Robert Appleby and Ann Butler and they seem to have remained in and around East Retford.		Nov-2012
85	Appleby Calvert line	Midlands	It seems likely that this line is linked in some way to that of the Applebys of East Retford - but we are still searching for more parish records to take the two lines further back in time	add corrections submitted 25/7/2013	Nov-2012
87	Appelbees of Hinckley, Leicestershire	Midlands	We show the descendants of William Appelbee, who died in Hinckley in 1789 - but we are investigating a possible connection with lines from Warwickshire. Later generations moved away from Leicestershire to Reading and some members of the line migrated to Australia.		Jan-2013	kit 265806 GROUP FIVE
96	Applebys of Buckinghamshire	Midlands	The earliest Applebys in this line came from Great Missenden, but the family moved further south in the county and seems to have settled in the villages around Penn.	more information to add to chart	Jul-2013	kit 284386 UNGROUPED
108	Appleby Screwmakers of Birmingham	Midlands	William Appleby was born in around 1805 in Bilston, Staffs and married Sarah France from Shropshire in 1827 in Yardley. The family settled in Birmingham where a number of descendants were screwmakers, with later generations working as brass founder, silversmith and other industrial trades in the Birmingham/Aston area.		Mar-2014
113	Applebys of Lincs and Rotherham	Midlands	This line of Applebys originated in Lincolnshire but moved to Rotherham in Yorkshire. We believe this line may be connected to that of William Barker Appleby, but would need male descendants of both lines to test to be sure!		Aug-2014
3	Joseph Applebee of Warwks	Midlands / overseas	Although Joseph was born in Warwickshire in abt 1823 by 1838 he was en route to South Australia, which is where most living descendants are still to be found		Dec-2009	kit 157242 UNGROUPED
10	Henry Appleby of Kirkby Malzeard	Northern counties	Henry Appleby married Mary Lister in 1687 in Kirkby Malzeard, Yorkshire. We have been able to trace lines descending from four of his great-grandsons and there are probably others, as our DNA program has found several Appleby lines that are linked to this line.	see also tree for his gt grandson James of Hurworth on Tees	Jan-2010	GROUP TWO (see Robert of Eryholme and Thornaby and James of Hurworth - both descended from Henry of Kirkby Malzeard)
11	William Appleby of Kirkby Fleetham	Northern counties	We believe that William was born in around 1700 in Catterick but his children and grandchildren all lived in Kirkby Fleetham.		Jan-2010
12	James Appleby of Hurworth on Tees	Northern counties	James Appleby was one of the gt grandsons of Henry of Kirkby Malzeard - some branches of thisline remained in Hurworth and others settled in other parts of Co Durham and Yorkshire. There were also descendants who emigrated to Canada, America and Australia. MDKA Henry Apleby, mar 1687 Kirkby Malzeard, Yks	updated name index on page and on master index	Jan 2010 updated mar 2014	kit 195487 GROUP TWO
13	Robert Appleby of Barnard Castle	Northern counties	Six generations of this line of Applebys lived in Barnard Castle right up to the late 18th century. It is possible that the line of George Walton Appleby is linked to this line, but we have not traced any other descendants to the 20thcentury.	cross reference to BMD sheets	Jan-2010
22	William Appleby of Framwellgate	Northern counties	William married Ann Pratt in Durham in 1793 and many descendants lived in Gateshead - this is another line linked to GROUP TWO through DNA MDKA Wm Appleby b ~1756 Sunderland, co Durham		Apr-2010	Ancestry kit GROUP TWO?
27	William and Margarite Apleby of Bishopwearmouth	Northern counties	This family has been traced right back to the mid 1600s in Bishopwearmouth where many of the males carried on trades associated with the river - keelmen, shipwrights etc., and eight generations later, all known descendants were still liing in Sunderland. There could be many more branches of this line, so do let us know if you have more information.		May-2010
28	William and Ellen of bishopwearmouth	Northern counties	originally we thought this was part of the other Bishopwearmouth line, but have now discovered that was an error. It is now a very short tree, so if you can provide any more information, do get in touch.		May-2010

29	George and Margaret Appleby of Sunderland	Northern counties	A number of early members of this line were sea pilots in the busy ports of Sunderland and Seaham Harbour - where there are likely to still be living descendants.		May-2010
31	Robert Appleby, coalminer of County Durham	Northern counties	Robert Appleby was born in about 1819 in Sunderland and worked as a coalminer in Houghton-le-Spring, Willington and other Durham mines. We know of one family that moved to Newcastle but most descendants seem to have remained in Co Durham.	name index added	sep 2011 updated jan 2013
35	John Appleby of Brompton	Northern counties	This line began with a linen weaver in Brompton, North Yorks, but most of the family moved to the industrialised areas of Co Durham and Cleveland. One branch is known to have emigrated to Ohio.	chart expanded and name index added	sep 2011 updated jan 2013
44	Robert Appleby of Eryholme and Thornaby	Northern counties	Robert was born in 1777 in Mickley nr Kirkby Malzeard but his family lived in Eryholme and later generations in Thornaby on Tees. Descendants have been found in Co Durham and North Yorkshire, and we know of one branch that emigrated to Canada. MDKA Robert Appleby, b.1777 Kirkby Malzeard, Yorks	see file for more updates	Aug-2010	kit 184024 GROUP TWO
45	Applebys of Teesdale - Henry of Barningham	Northern counties	This line of Applebys has been tracked from the Tees Valley to Tyneside, where many descendants still live. Some branches moved to Sheffield, Derbyshire, London and also migrated to Canada. MDKA Henry Appleby b~1560 Barningham N Yorks	Added Eckington Appleby branch	aug 2010 updated Nov 2012	kit 147514 - GROUP TWO
46	George Walton Appleby	Northern counties	This line was made much easier to follow as in almost generation there was a George Walton Appleby! Many descendants also carry the middle name of Shaffo. The earliest known GWA was a solicitor in Durham. Branches are known to have migrated to Iowa, British Columbia, and Bermuda.	added image and link to DLI website aug 2014	Aug-2010
50	Thomas and Frances Appleby of Embleton, N'land	Northern counties	A number of members of this family were Quarry proprietors in Northumberland - we know that one branch emigrated to Canada and believe there may be a number of living Appleby descendants of the line both in England and Canada. MDKA Thos Appleby, b~1817 Long Framlington, N'land	chart updated aug 2014 - check all info from JW added	Jan-2011	kit 184025 GROUP ONE
54	Applebys of Haswell, Durham	Northern counties	This line of Applebys had strong connections to the coal mining industry of Durham. One branch migrated to Australia but there are believed to still be many descendants living in England MDKA John Appleby, b~1786 Lanchester, Co Durham		May-2011	kit 195488 GROUP ONE
55	Thomas Appleby of Neasham	Northern counties	Thomas Appleby was one of the gt grandsons of Henry of Kirkby Malzeard - Thomas's family moved first to York and tn to London, with two branches migrating to the USA	name index added	jun 2011 updated jan 2013
58	Alnwick Applebys	Northern counties	There is every chance that this line is linked to that of the Acklington Applebys, but we have not yet made a connection through the records. Perhaps DNA can provide the answer? As far as we know, most descendants remained in the area.	name index added	updated dec 2012
59	Thomas Appleby of Tynemouth	Northern counties	Thomas Appleby was a stationer and was born in Tynemouth in about 1804/5 - however there are two children with this name in the baptism records, and we can't be sure which he is.		Aug-2011
81	Appleby blacksmiths of Ellingstring	Northern counties	Joseph Appleby was born about 1781 in Ellingstring - many of the family were blacksmiths. One branch migrated to Coromandel, New Zealand		Mar-2014
88	Applebys of Osmotherley, Yorkshire	Northern counties	John Appleby was born in abt 1801 in Knayton, north Yorkshire he was a tailor and later a farmer. After marrying an Osmotherley girl Elizabeth Barker they raised their family in Osmotherley, but later generations moved to Co Durham where they worked in the coal mines.		Apr-2013
89	Scarborough Applebys	Northern counties	This line currently starts with John Appleby, born abt 1789 in Scarborough (but we are still working on expanding the line further)		coming soon!	kit 265801 UNGROUPED Northern
89	John Appleby, stonemason of Acklington	Northern counties	John Appleby was born in Acklington in around 1790 and was a stonemason journeyman, though his sons and grandsons were brick and tile makers at various Northumberland Tileries. Although there is every likelihood that this line is linked to the Acklington line, we have not found the connection.		Apr-2013	kit 284339 and kit 283748 GROUP ONE - Northern counties
90	Joseph Appleby of Cumberland and Durham	Northern counties	Joseph Appleby was born in about 1812 in Whitehaven in Cumberland, but he married Catharine Hutchinson in Hetten lee Hole and his children were born in various places in Durham and Northumberland. We know that descendants of this line are living in Australia, and would like to hear from anyone else who belongs to this line.		May-2013
92	Appleby clothiers of Leeds	Northern counties	This line of Applebys were almost all involved in weaving or the cloth trade - starting off in Gildersome and Batley but moving into the Armley district of Leeds by the 1800s.		Jul-2013
97	William Philip Appleby	Northern counties	William Philip Appleby was a rifleman in the London Regiment of Post Office Rifles who was killed in the Somme in the final year of the Great War. We have traced this line back to Thomas Appleby and Mary Jonson who married in Warkworth in 1793 - it is likely that the line is connected to the Acklington Applebys		Mar-2014
98	Cramlington Applebys	Northern counties	Thomas and Isabella Appleby married in around 1821 and both came from villages to the west of Newcastle upon Tyne. After spending the first years of their marriage in Felling in Co Durham they moved to Cramlington where almost all of their male descendants worked at High Pit colliery.	add links to John of corbridge line	Jul-2013	kit 284343 - GROUP TWO - Northern counties

99	Adam Appleby of Easby	Northern counties	Adam Appleby was born in Easby, Yorks in about 1787 and married Catherine Graham in Danby Wiske in 1813. Most of their family moved across the county border to Durham where they worked in the mines		Mar-2014	kit 284233 - GROUP TWO - Northern counties
101	Appleby Quakers of Durham	Northern counties	This interesting family goes back to Anthony Appleby whose children were recorded in Quaker records in the early 1600s. Generations of this family were clothiers and drapers in Darlington. Most of the information has been located in the excellent Quaker records.		Mar-2014
104	Salvation Army Applebys	Northern counties	This family lived in Brompton by Northallerton and later in Thornaby on Tees, where several family members were involved in the Salvation Army. It is likely that the line connects to the line of Applebys from Brompton.		Mar-2014
109	Jonathan Kidd appleby of Gateshead and Egypt	Northern counties	Although this line has its origins in Gateshead, Jonathan Kidd appleby was born in Egypt where his father was working as an engineer on the Egyptian railways.	add links to John of corbridge line	Jun-2014
110	Durham Miners	Northern counties	We have traced this line back to a Michael Appleby, collier, born in Kelloe in County Durham in 1781 - could this line connect to John of Kelloe?		Mar-2014
111	Cowton Applebys of Scarborough and Sheffield	Northern counties	Although this line originated in Scarborough the family moved to Derbyshire and later to Sheffield		May-2014
17	Thomas Appleby of Whitby and Chile	Northern counties / overseas	Thomas Appleby married Sarah Hill in Whitby, Yorks in 1779 - three of their four known children had strong associations with South America where they led exciting (and dangerous!) lives. Some of their descendants still live in Argentina.	add new info rec'd sep 2014	jan 2010 updated jul 2010
18	Thos Appleby of Leeds (Applebys in India)	Northern counties / overseas	This line descends from Appleby cheesemakers in Leeds, Yorks. Some branches spent time in India, others migrated to California. We know from DNA that this line is linked to others in GROUP TWO, but have not yet made the connection with written records. Thos Appleby, mar 1818 Leeds, Yorks	add new info	Apr-2010	kit 184023 GROUP TWO
23	John Appleby exciseman of Corbridge - see also line 78	Northern counties / overseas	This line has been traced back to Henry Appleby (born abt 1660 in West Matfen, Northumbs), who was a son of John Appleby exciseman in Corbridge. We know of descendants in USA, Norway and New Zealand. This line also belongs to GROUP TWO MDKA John Appleby d. 1696 in Corbridge, N'land		May-2010	kit 236816 GROUP TWO
24	John Appleby of Kelloe	Northern counties / overseas	This line has similar origins to that of John of Corbridge, but we have not yet found the records to establish the link. Branches are known to have migrated to South Africa, California and Pennsylvania.		may 2010 updated jul 2010	kit 265803 GROUP TWO
30	Barnabus Appleby	Northern counties / overseas	Early generations of this line were seamen, but later moved to Sunderland where some were blacksmiths and chainmakers. We have found descendants of this line who emigrated to Australia and the USA. It may be linked to the line of Wm and Margarite of Bishopwearmouth.		May-2010
43	Acklington Applebys	Northern counties / overseas	This huge line of Applebys has origins in Acklington and Morpeth in Northumberland. We know of branches that stayed in Alnwick and Newcastle and one that migrated to Illinois.		may 2010 updated jun 2012	kit 284345 GROUP ONE
52	Applebys of Kirkcaldy	Scotland	Although we know that this line originated in Ireland, they lived for a number of generations in Kirkcaldy in Fife. We have now positively linked this line to that of the Applebys of Roscommon and Middlesbrough (Ireland).	tree updated April 2015 with info relating to Roscommon line	Apr-2011	kit 267905 GROUP ONE
65	Luke Appleby of Kingsdon Somerset	South West	Luke Appleby married Ann Norris in 1794 in Kingsdon and we think this family is closely related to that of Emanuel Appleby, but have not yet found any evidence to prove this. Most of Luke's descendants moved to north Somerset or Bristol, where there are probably descendants still living today.		updated sep 2011
67	Babcary Applebys	South West	At the head of this line is Amos Appleby (born about 1762) and his wife Margaret. Many descendants remained in Babcary in Somerset, though some families migrated to Lancashire and London - there were gardeners and seedsman in this line as well as some printer compositors.	correct error with marriage of Albion Appleby	Sep-2011
68	Mudford Applebys	South West	Although there were a number of Applebys born in Mudford, Somerset in the early parish records, I have only been able to trace one line through to the 20th century - that of Sansom Appleby and Ann Sergeant who married in 1780. Many of this line were bakers or carpenters, and most descendants remained in Somerset.		Sep-2011
4	Emanuel Appleby of Kingsdon and Tasmania	South West / overseas	Emanuel Appleby married Love Ludwell in 1785 in Kingsdon Somerset. Members of the family were bakers. We know that several families from this line emigrated to Tasmania.	check all updates from Walker Book included on chart	Dec-2009	kit 165569 UNGROUPED
86	Applebys of Kentucky	USA			coming soon!	kit 89571 UNGROUPED

