

line no	initial contact and details of any reorg-anisation	tree name - lines already available on the website are shaded in colour of region	section	brief details	page live/ updated	UPDATES required/ completed & KNOWN CONNECTIONS to other lines	yDNA kit numbers for testers recruited; lines which belong to DNA GROUPS	no. of Family Finder test results in project
15	22.1.10	Nathaniel Appleby of Langenhoe	East Anglia/ London & SE	Generations of this family lived around Langenhoe, Abberton and Fingringhoe but eventually some moved to the East End of London. One branch is known to have emigrated to New Zealand	16-Jul-10	add info re children of David and Mary Ann (Baker)	yDNA 210877 GROUP THREE
32		James Appelbi of Boxted, Essex	East Anglia	This very large family remained in Boxted (which is where we have found the earliest parish records for Applebys) for at least eight generations before dispersing to nearby villages, to Colchester or London. One branch is known to have emigrated to Arizona	19-Jul-2010 jan 2017 tree removed pending corrections	needs correcting and probably splitting into several smaller trees until we can be certain whether they really do connect together
33		Miles Appleby of Dedham	East Anglia	Although Miles was born in Dedham, most of his children were born in villages SW of Chelmsford. In the mid 1800s most of this family moved across the Thames to Kent.	28-Aug-10	probably further info from census	yDNA 267904 GROUP THREE
34		James Appleby of Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	James Appleby married Sarah Norman in Fingringhoe in 1805	5/30/2010	4/6/14 added updates from David/Gill and added photos to page	yDNA 179931 UNGROUPED; yDNA 210876 GROUP THREE
36		William Appleby b1760 Gt Braxted, Essex	East Anglia	Several generations of this line were farmers and innkeepers in villages around Braxton. We elieve that one descendant went to Canada in the 1920s	27-Jul-10
37		Edward Appleby b 1774 Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	Edward born in about 1774, married Amelia Hales	22-Jul-10
39		Joseph appleby, b 1799 Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	Joseph Appleby was a farmer born in 1799 - he married Sarah Gentry	updated 5 aug 2010
40		George Appleby b1780 Ardleigh, Essex	East Anglia	George married Elizabeth Nice (or Nurse) - we know that one major branch of this family emigrated to Australia	18-Jan-11	updated 2015	yDNA 199993 GROUP THREE yDNA 302219 (Essex ungrouped)	1
42		William Appleby, b1806, Layer de la Haye, Essex	East Anglia	William was born in 1806 and was married to Hannah	16-Jul-10
38		Thomas Appleby b 1730 Boxted, Essex	East Anglia			is this part of Boxted line?
41		William Appleby, b1801 Boxted, Essex	East Anglia			another part of Boxted line?
94	1.5.13	Charles Appleby wheelwright of Moulsham	East Anglia			in progress
132		Applebys of Thorpe le Soken	Essex			in progress		1
1		Joseph Appleby, tin plate worker	London & SE families	Joseph was a tin plate worker and tin toy maker in Bethnal Green, supposedly born in Bethnal Green in about 1820 - but DNA seems to indicate origins in the Midlands	17-Dec-09		yDNA - 143479 GROUP FIVE	2
2		Samuel Appleby, wheelwright	London & SE/Midlands	Samuel and his sons were wheelwrights in St Pancras, but the family originally came from Dogsthorpe in Northants	19-Dec-09
5		Matthew Applebee, sawyer	London & SE/Midlands	Matthew's family were sawyers from Berkshire who moved to London's East End nd later migrated up to Yorkshire	31-Dec-09	need to add details of Mark Appleby who went to Canada
6		Richard Appleby, carpenter	London & SE	a family of carpenters from St Pancras	06-Jan-10
7		Henry Appleby, engraver	London & SE	Henry and his sons were engravers based in and around Islington. It is possible that this line is linked to other London families with similar trades	06-Jan-10
8		John James Appleby, cutler	London & SE	This line of cutlers were based in Clerkenwell and Islington	14-Jan-10
19	15.2.10	John Appleby, trimming maker	London & SE	This seemed to be an East End family, but we discovered that the original family had come from Coventry. One branch migrated to Wisconsin in about 1850	28-Feb-10		yDNA 147565 and 222309 GROUP FOUR
49	12.11.10	William Barker Appleby, coachmaker	London & SE	Although this family originated in Lincolnshire, they migrated to London in the mid 19thC, with two generations of one branch emigrating to New Zealand soon after	22-Nov-10	double check PRs at top end of line! Link added to Lincs/rotherham line		1
51	6.4.11	William Appleby, Pianoforte maker	London & SE	William was born in Stepney, possibly the son of Thomas appleby and Mary (Bushell). Wiliam only seems to have had one son - Walter - who was a tennis bat maker	18-Apr-11
61	28.8.11	George Appleby musician of St Pancras	London & SE - may link to Somerset	This was an unusual line to research, as we started with a young man who jumped ship in Canada! Eventually we traced his father to London where he was a musician - but we believe that originally the line may have arrived from Yeovil in somerset	17/09/2011
83	1.11.12	Samuel the pipemaker	London & SE	We know tht there are several marriages between this line and that of John James Appleby, cutler (whose family lived in the same area of London) - but have not yet found a connection in the written records. Although all generations researched to date lived in London, we now know that Samuel's father lived in Tetbury in Staffordshire	01-Feb-13		yDNA - 236822 UNGROUPED Midlands

84	1.11.12	Armourers and brasiers	London & SE	Two brothers, John and Charles, were sent to London from Reading in Berkshire to be apprenticed as Arbourers and Braisiers. They seem to hve made a success of their lives, but it looks as if both branches of this line 'daughtered out' by the 1860s.	18-Nov-12
122	3/30/2015	Appleby carpenters from Herts, London and Australia	London & SE & SE/Rest of World	We have traced this line back to a John appleby, carpenter, whose children were all born in Hertfordshire - but so far we have not managed to locate a birth or marriage in Hertfordshire for John himself. We know that at least one family amongst his descendants emigrated to Australia.	Apr-16
133		Walter Charles Appleby of St Pancras	London & SE	This line of Applebys mainly based in St Pancras, is headed by a John Appleby and Elizabeth (Castledine) who married in St Geo HS in 1783. Surprisingly yDNA reveals an exact match with the Northern line of Haswell Applebys		published August 2017	yDNA 336537 NORTHERN GROUP ONE
75	31.3.12	Samuel Appelbee, baker of Southwark	London & SE			in progress
82		tallow chandlers?	London & SE/Midlands			in progress - where is file?
117	1.12.14	Kent Applebys	London & SE & SE			check if connected to Henry of Kirkby Malzeard (10) or new line
125	1/29/2016	Benjamin applebee pewterer	London & SE & Se			in progress
129		Applebys Painters & Decorators of London & S Africa	London & SE and Rest of World			in progress	yDNA 336522 - results pending
3		Joseph Appleby of Warwks	Midlands/Rest of World	Joseph Applebee was born in Warwickshire in about 1823 and emigrated to South Australia in 1838	22-Dec-09		yDNA 157242 UNGROUPED
53	18.2.11	Willenhall Applebys, locksmiths	Midlands	This huge line of Applebys who all seem to have worked in the locksmith trade, is comprised of several different branches that we can't connect together with absolute confidence - though they all seem to descend from a Humphrey Appleby. For the time being, the different branches appear as separate lines		add new info to line A from Rebecca - working on linking charts together	yDNA 222308 GROUP FIVE; yDNA 265804 GROUP FIVE
71	30.12.11	John and Tamar Appleby of Staffordshire and USA	Midlands	John Appleby originated from Staffordshire - members of this family were nailors in Staffs, Shropshire and Worcestershire - one branch emigrated to Nebraskain the 1850s	29-Jan-12	- new info to be added may 2014 plus more from Judy sep 2015
76	10.5.12	Applebys of East Retford, Notts	Midlands	This family may be connected to the Calvert line shown below	18-Nov-12
85	1.11.12	Appleby Calvert line	Midlands	This line was also from East Retford	18-Nov-12	more info from Jim pending?
87	1.1.13	Appelbees of Hinckley	Midlands	Early generations of this Leicestershire line were bakers - some descendants are known to have lived in Reading and later in Australia	Feb-13		yDNA 265806 MIDLANDS Group Five
96	1.7.13	Buckinghamshire Applebys	Midlands	this line originated in Great Missenden in the mid 1600s, but moved further south to Penn and surrounding villages in the early 1800s	Jul-13		yDNA 284346 UNGROUPED
108	1.1.14	Screwmakers of Birmingham	Midlands	Could this line be linked to the Willenhall locksmiths?	Mar-14
113	1.8.14	Lincs and Rotherham Applebys	midlands	This line originated in Boston, Lincs but the largest branch had moved to Rotherham (via Matlock in Derbyshire) by 1891. another branch ended up in Sheffield in Yorkshire and a third in Retford in Nottingham.	Aug-14	probably connected to William Barker Appleby line
47		Thomas Appleby of Derbyshire	Midlands			basic info received - needs following up
100	1.8.13	Appleby Coaches of Lincolnshire	Midlands			in progress
103	1.9.13	Joseph Appleby of Birmingham - inventor of the roller chain	Midlands			chase up
116	1.11.14	Snitterfield APPELBEEs	Midlands			probably connected to Hinckley line -awaiting info from Tim
121	7.4.15	Applebys of Oxfordshire	Midlands			needs more work before publishing to website	yDNA 336521 - MIDLANDS GROUP SIX
126	7.2.16	Bassingbourn Applebys	midlands			query only - probably not sufficient info to reconstruct tree
134		Appleby Blacksmiths of Bedfordshire	Midlands			in progress
10		Henry Appleby of Kirkby Malzeard	Northern England	Henry Appleby married Mary Lister in 1687 in Kirkby Malzeard, Yorkshire. We have been able to trace lines descending from four of his great-grandsons and there are probably others, ass our DNA program has found several others Appleby lines that share a common ancestor with testers from this line.	16-Jan-10	original paper file missing - links to line12 and line 55	see test results for lines of James of Hurworth on Tees and Robert of Kirkby Malzeard GROUP ONE
11		William Appleby of Kirkby Fleetham	Northern England	We believe that William was born in around 1700 in Catterick, but his children and grandchildren all lived in Kirkby Fleetham.	16-Jan-10	connects to line 99 - Adam of Easby

12		James Appleby of Hurworth on Tees	Northern England	James Appleby was one of the gt-grandsons of Henry of Kirkby Malzeard - some branches of this line remained in Hurworth and others settled in other parts of Co Durham and Yorkshire. There were also descendants who emigrated to Canada, America and Australia.	16/01/2010 updated 14 jun, 17 jul 2010	paper file missing	yDNA 195487 GROUP TWO
13		Robert Appleby of Barnard Castle	Northern England	Six generations of this line of Applebys lived in Barnard Castle, right up to the late 18th century. It is possible that the line of George Walton Appleby is linked to this line, but we have not yet traced any other descendants to the 20th century.	16-Jan-10	continue updating and cross ref to BMD sheets		1
17		Thomas Appleby of Whitby and Chile	Northern England / Rest of World	Thomas Appleby married Sarah Hill in Whitby, Yorks in 1779 - three of their four known children had strong associations with South America where they led exciting (and dangerous!) lives. It is believed that Thomas was involved in shipping arms to the liberation armies of Argentina and Chile.	27/01/2010 updated 17 jul 2010	update chart with new info when heard from Nieves (sep 2014) sep 2015 - added photo and info from Armando
18	12.2.10	Applebys of Leeds and India	Northern counties/Rest of World	This line descends from Appleby cheesemakers in Leeds, Yorks. Some branches spent time in India, others migrated to California. We know from DNA that this line is linked to others in GROUP TWO, but have not yet made the connection with written records. Thos Appleby, mar 1818 Leeds, Yorks	04/07/2010	ADD NEW INFO	yDNA 184023 GROUP TWO
22	21.2.10	William Appleby of Framwellgate	Northern England	William was born in ~1756 in Sunderland, and married Ann Pratt in Durham in 1793 and many descendants lived in Gateshead - this is another line linked to DNA GROUP TWO.	07-Apr-10		Ancestry yDNA test GROUP TWO?	1
23	23.2.10	John Appleby exciseman of Corbridge - see also line 78	Northern England	This line has been traced back to Henry Appleby (born about 1660 in West Maffon, Northumberland) who was a son of John appleby exciseman in Corbridge. We know of descendants in USA, Norway and New Zealand. This line also belongs to Group TWO of our DNA project.	30-May-10	found new info in line 78 (Newcastle Applebys, in preparation) which needs to be double checked and linked to this line	yDNA 236816 GROUP TWO
24	23.2.10	John Appleby of Kelloe	Northern England	The Kelloe line has similar origins to that of John of Corbridge, but we have not yet found written records to establish the line. Branches are known to have migrated to South Africa, California and Pennsylvania.	30/05/2010 updated 17 jul 2010	original paper file missing - ADD NEW INFO re French branch	yDNA 265803 GROUP TWO
27		William and Margarite Apleby of Bishopwearmouth	Northern England / Rest of World	This family has been traced right back to the mid 1600s in Bishopwearmouth, where many of the males carried on trades associated with the river - keelmen, shipwrights, etc., and eight generations later, all known descendants were still living in Sunderland. There could be many more branches of this line, so do let us know if you have more information.	30-May-10
28		William and Ellen of Bishopwearmouth	Northern England	Originally, we though this was part of line 27 from Bishopwearmouth, but have now discovered that was an error. It is now a very short tree, so if you can provide any more information, get in touch!	30-May-10
29		George and Margaret Appleby of Sunderland	Northern England	A number of early members of this line were sea pilots in the busy ports of Sunderland and Seaham Harbour - where there are likely to still be living descendants.	30-May-10	add updates re family of Ralph and Hannah
30		Barnabus Appleby	Northern England	Early generations of this line were seamen, but later moved to Sunderland where some were blacksmiths and chainmakers. We have found descendants of this line who emigrated to Australia and the USA. It may be linked to the line of Wm and Margarite of Bishopwearmouth.	30-May-10
31		Robert Appleby, coalminer of County Durham	Northern England	Robert Appleby was born in about 1819 in Sunderland and worked as a coalminer in Houghton-le-Spring, Willington and other Durham mines. We know of one family that moved to Newcastle, but most descendants seem to have remained in County Durham.	07-Sep-11	original paper file missing - name index added	NB this line is descended from a female Appleby - yDNA test not appropriate
35		John Appleby of Brompton	Northern England and new world	John was a linen weaver in Brompton, North Yorks, but most of the family moved to the industrialised areas of Co Durham and Cleveland. One branch is known to have emigrated to Ohio.	added 9/2/2011	chart and name list updated
43		Acklington Applebys	Northern England	This huge line of Applebys, headed by Thomas of Acklington (born ~1615), has early families living in Acklington and Morpeth in Northumberland. We know of branches that stayed in Alnwick and Newcastle and one that migrated to Illinois.	31 may 2010 updated 6 jun	original paper file missing	yDNA 284345 - GROUP ONE
44		Robert Appleby of Eryholme and Thornaby	Northern England	Robert was born in 1777 in Mickley near Kirkby Malzeard but his family lived jin Eryholme and later generations in Thornaby-on-Tees. Descendants have been found in Co durham and North Yorkshire, and we know of one branch that emigrated to Canada.	06-Aug-10	add updates 2014	yDNA 184024 GROUP TWO

45		Applebys of Teesdale - Henry of Barningham	Northern England	This line has been tracked from the Tees Valley to Tyneside, where many descendants still live. Some branches moved to Sheffield, Derbyshire, London and also migrated to Canada.	13-Aug-10	new Eckington branch added - there is also another possible new branch in Newcastle that needs following up	yDNA147514 - GROUP TWO
46		George Walton Appleby	Northern England	Research on this line was made easier as in almost every generation there was a George Walton Appleby! Many descendants also carry the middle name of Shafto. The earliest known George Walton Appleby was a solicitor in Durham. Branches are known to have migrated to Iowa, British Columbia and Bermuda	31-Aug-10	original file missing - added image of Ernest Walton A and link to DLI website aug 2014
50		Thomas and Frances Appleby of Embleton, N'land	Northern England	A number of members of this family were Quarry proprietors in Northumberland - we know that one branch migrated to Canada and believe there may be living descendants of the line both in England and Canada.	1/18/2011	updated chart 2014 with all new info after sending to Beth, Ruth, Jim and William for comments. Added new info from Jim	yDNA 184025 GROUP ONE
54	3.5.11	Applebys of Haswell, Durham	Northern England	The Haswell Applebys had strong connections to the coal mining industry of Durham. One branch migrated to Australia but there are believed to still be many descendants living in England.	05-May-11	recreated missing paper file. Extended website and updated webpage	yDNA 195488 GROUP ONE
55	26.6.11	Thomas Appleby of Neasham	Northern England	Thomas was a grandson of Henry of Kirkby Malzeard, and was a labourer in Neasham, Co Durham. His only son was a florist who moved to York, then London and finally to San Francisco - you can read a fascinating account of his stormy trip across the Atlantic in 1878!	09-Jun-11	original paper file missing. This line connects to Henry of Kirkby Malzeard		1
58	17.7.11	Alnwick Applebys	Northern England	There is a good possibility that this line is inked to that of the Acklington Applebys but we have not managed to make the connection via written records. Most descendants seem to have remained in the area - perhaps DNA can prove a connection?	09-May-11	original paper file missing
59		Thomas Appleby of Tynemouth	Northern England	Thomas was a stationer who was born in Tynemouth in about 1804/5 - we need to discover more records to establish with certainty who his parents were to take this line further back.	28/08/2011	no file - may connect to 102 booksellers in Durham (in preparation)
81	1.9.12	Applebys blacksmiths of Ellingstring (Heddon)	Northern England	Joseph Appleby was born in about 1781 in Ellingstring - many of the family were blacksmiths. One branch migrated to Coromandel, New Zealand and descendants are known to live in NZ and Australia.	Mar-14	new info received - working on updates	yDNA 336533 UNGROUPED northern counties
88	1.1.13	Applebys of Osmotherley	Northern England	John Appleby was born in abt 1801 in Knayton, North Yorks - he was a tailor and later a farmer. After marrying Elizabeth Barker they raised their family in Osmotherley, but later generations moved to Co Durham where many worked in coal mines.	Mar-13
89	19.1.13	Scarborough Applebys	Northern England	This line currently starts with John Appleby, born about 1789 in Scarborough, and know that most of the descendants were mariners - but we are still working on expanding the line further.		jan 2015 - info on page about Scarborough but actual tree pending	yDNA 265802 UNGROUPED Northern counties
90	1.3.13	Applebys of Cumberland and Durham	Northern England	Joseph Appleby was born in about 1812 in Whitehaven in Cumberland; he married Catharine Hutchinson in Hetten le Hole and his children were born in various places in Durham and Northumberland. We know that descendants of this line are living in Australia, and would like to hear from anyone else who belongs to this line.	May-13
91	1.3.13	John Appleby stonemason of Acklington	Northern England	John Appleby was born in Acklington in around 1790 and was a stonemason journeyman, though his sons and grandsons were brick and tile makers at various Northumberland Tileries. Although there is every likelihood that this line is linked to the Acklington line, we have not found the connection.	Apr-13		yDNA 284339 GROUP ONE Northern counties; yDNA 283748 GROUP ONE - Northern counties
92	1.4.13	Appleby clothiers of Leeds	Northern England	This line of Applebys were almost all involved in weaving or the cloth trade - starting off in Gildersome and Batley but moving into the Armley district of Leeds by the 1800s.	Jul-13
97	1.7.13	William Philip appleby	Northern England	William Philip Appleby was a rifleman in the London Regiment of Post Office Rifles who was killed in the Somme in the final year of the Great War. We have traced this line back to Thomas Appleby and Mary Jonson who married in Warkworth in 1793 - it is likely that the line is connected to the Acklington Applebys	Mar-14

98	1.7.13	Applebys of High Pit, Cramlington - connects to 23 John of corbridge line	Northern England	Thomas and Isabella Appleby married in around 1821 and both came from villages to the west of Newcastle upon Tyne. After spending the first years of their marriage in Felling in Co Durham they moved to Cramlington where almost all of their male descendants worked at High Pit colliery.	Jul-13	now proved to connect to line 23 Corbridge Applebys	yDNA 284343 GROUP TWO
99	1.7.13	Adam Appleby of Easby, Yorks	Northern England	Adam Appleby was born in Easby, Yorks in about 1787 and married Catherine Graham in Danby Wiske in 1813. Most of their family moved across the county border to Durham where they worked in the mines	Mar-14	needs updating with new info connecting this line to Wm of Kirkby Fleetham (line 11)	yDNA 284344 GROUP TWO
101	1.8.13	Durham Quakers	Northern England	This interesting family goes back to Anthony Appleby whose children were recorded in Quaker records in the early 1600s. Generations of this family were clothiers and drapers in Darlington. Most of the information has been located in the excellent Quaker records	Mar-14
104	1.11.13	Thomas and Mary of Brompton (Salvation Army Applebys)	Northern England	This family lived in Brompton by Northallerton and later in Thornaby on Tees, where several family members were involved in the Salvation Army. It is likely that the line connects to the line of Applebys from Brompton.	Mar-14	may connect to other Appleby families in Brompton	not suitable for yDNA testing as all living males descended from female Appleby back in mid 1800s
109	1.2.14	Jonathan Kidd Appleby of Gateshead and Egypt	Northern England	We believe that Jonathan was actually born in Egypt, where his father was a railway engineer, but we now think this line is actually part of the line of John of Corbridge.	Jun-14	added links to john of corbridge line
110	1.3.14	Appleby miners of Durham	Northern England	this line of Applebys originated in Kelloe (and may yet be found to be linked to the Kelloe line) and like many mining families they were familiar with the disasters that were all too frequent in the collieries	Mar-14
111	1.3.14	Cowton Applebys of Scarborough and Sheffield	Northern England	this line was based in Scarborough and Sheffield - where they were involved in the terrible flood of 1864	May-14
135	21.5.17	Wylam branch of Corbridge Applebys	Northern England	This recently researched branch of the Corbridge line descends from Thomas Appleby and Mary (Arthur). Many members of this branch were coal miners in the North-East and later generations were found working in the mines of Prudhoe, Crawcrook, Newcastle as well as Wylam itself. yDNA confirms an exact match with Corbridge line.	Jun-17	published August 2017	yDNA 336532 NORTHERN GROUP TWO
16		Henry Appleby of Newcastle and South Africa	Northern England / Rest of World			awaiting info from Colin
20	23.1.10	Applebys of East Peoria, Illinois - merged into Acklington Applebys -see 43	Northern England / Rest of World			now merged into Acklington Applebys - see line 43
25		John Appleby, shipwright of Shields and London	Northern England / London & SE
48		John appleby of Burton Fleming, Yorks	Northern England			basic info received - needs following up - paper file missing
57	7/14/2011 - see line 80	Joseph Appleby of NY	Northern England/rest of world			still needs work - also see line 80
60	see 98	Thomas Appleby of Cramlington - see line 98	Northern England			branch of line 23 - John of Corbridge
62		Michael Appleby	Northern England			no info received
63		Thomas Appleby of Bempton	Northern England			no info received
64		John Appleby of Knayton	Northern England			no info received
77	1.5.12	Lancaster Applebys	Northern England			in progress
78	10.5.12	Newcastle Applebys - found to be part of John of Corbridge line 23	Northern England			this tree links in to line 23 - John of corbridge - needs further checking
93	1.5.13	Appleby cornmillers of Leeds	Northern England			needs further work
95	1.7.13	Pickering Applebys	Northern England
102	1.8.13	Appleby Bookshop Morpeth + Durham booksellers -	Northern England			finish working on this file - may connect to Acklington line 43 and also line 59 for stationers in Tyneside
105	1.12.13	Malton Applebys	Northern England			in progress
106	1.1.14	Pringle Applebys	Northern England			in progress
107	1.1.14	Pawnbroker Applebys of Leeds	Northern England
114	1.8.14	Cumberland Applebys	Northern England			in Progress.check for any connection to Joseph of Cumberland and Durham		1
118	2.1.15	Applebys from Bury and Rochdale	Northern England			awaiting more info from Ian

119	3.1.15	Appleby printers of Stockton	Northern England			in progress
120	3.1.15	Richard Appleby of the Wolds Waggoners	Northern England			Awaiting more info from Colin
123	8/28/2015	Applebys of Sunderland and Seaham	Northern England			awaiting info from Bryn
127	4/18/2016	Applebys of Bridlington and Australia	Northern England / Rest of World			in progress
131	2/24/2017	Applebys of Manchester	Northern England			in progress
136		John Appleby & Margt Dinning of Blyth, N'land	Northern England			in progress
137	8.6.17	Jons Wood line - another branch of Corbridge line 23?	Northern England			in progress
4		Emanuel Appleby of Kingsdon and Tasmania	South Western England/Rest of World	Emanuel Appleby married Love Ludwell in 1785 in Kingsdon Somerset. Members of the family were bakers, We know that several families from this line emigrated to Tasmania.	22-Dec-09	check updates from Walker book included	yDNA 165569 UNGROUPED	1
65	17.9.11	Luke Appleby of Kingsdon Somerset	South Western England	Luke Appleby married Ann Norris in 1794 in Kingsdon and we think this family is closely related to that of Emanuel Appleby, but have not yet found any evidence to prove this. Most of Luke's descendants moved to north Somerset or Bristol, where there are probably descendants still living today.		22/9/2011 - updated - possibly connects to line 4 Emmanuel of Kingsdon
67	21.9.11	Babcary Applebys	South Western England	At the head of this line is Amos Appleby (born about 1762) and his wife Margaret. Many descendants remained in Babcary in Somerset, though some families migrated to Lancashire and London - there were gardeners and seedsmen in this line as well as some printer compositors.	26-Sep-11
68	25.9.11	Mudford Applebys	South Western England	Although there were a number of Applebys born in Mudford, Somerset in the early parish records, I have only been able to trace one line through to the 20th century - that of Sansom Appleby and Ann Sergeant who married in 1780. Many of this line were bakers or carpenters, and most descendants remained in Somerset	26-Sep-11
26		John Appleby, biscuit baker of Somerset and Shoreditch	South Western England / London & SE
66	21.9.11	James Appleby of Babcary and Queen Camel	South Western England			still working on this line
69	25.9.11	Applebys bakers of Castle Cary	South Western England			still working on this line
79	29.5.12	Emanuel of Lydford	South Western England			found several families in Lydford but still need to identify how they connect
128		Applebys of West Pennard	South Western England			in progress		1
56	2.7.11	Roscommon and Middlesbro Applebys	Ireland/North	The earliest Applebys we have identified in this line came from Roscommon, but we have now discovered that they are closely connected to the line of Kirkcaldy Applebys. A number of the Roscommon Applebys spent time in Scotland and one particular family group moved to Middlesbrough in North Yorkshire - with descendants emigrating to the USA.	04/01/2015	connects to Kirkcaldy line	yDNA 336519 GROUP ONE	2
70	3.11.11	Appelbes of Cork, Ireland	Ireland	Alexander Appelbe was born in around 1725 and was a linen weaver in Cork. Generations remained around Cork where they were County Surveyors, but following separation in the 1920s, one branch moved to England	30/11/2011	file missing? updated 9 aug 2014
52	9.4.11	Applebys of Kirkcaldy	Scotland	We have now discovered that this line is actually part of the Roscommon line from Ireland - according to yDNA results, both lines share a common ancestor with the Northumberland lines in DNA GROUP ONE	22-Apr-11	updated with new info re link to Roscommon line 56	yDNA 267905 - NORTHERN GROUP ONE
14		William Appleby of Pennsylvania	Rest of World	William and his two brothers James and John sailed from northern Ireland to Pennsylvania in the 1770s - where William fought in the American Civil War. We still need to add trees for his brothers. This line belongs to DNA GROUP ONE, but we still need to establish if William's parents lived in Ireland or whether he came from England and merely boarded the ship in Ireland.	16-Jan-10	needs updates for Wm & Eliz son John, also check William and Elizabeth's son James	yDNA 162251 and 68079 GROUP ONE	4
21	21.2.10	Hezekiah Appleby: part of William of PA tree - see 14	Rest of World	Hezekiah was the son of one of William Appleby of Pennsylvania's daughters (see line 14). His descendants moved from George to Arizona.	6/26/2015	added new info re murals found in cellar in 2015		1

